

LANAO DEL SUR

Marayaw

CIC Sumalindaw

Introduction

An app that promotes local tourism and provides information on popular attractions, historical sites, and cultural events. Like guided tours and recommendations for food and lodging.

The term "Marayaw" is derived from the Maranao language, spoken by the Maranao people in the Philippines. The term "Marayaw" can be translated to mean "beautiful" or "splendid" in English.

Problem Description

- 01 There is no centralized platform that provides complete and updated information about Lanao Del Sur's attractions, culture, and services.*
- 02 Tourists face difficulty planning trips and discovering hidden destinations due to limited reliable sources.*
- 03 The absence of a user-friendly app with maps, itineraries, and translations reduces travel convenience.*
- 04 There is a need to promote Lanao Del Sur's tourism and highlight Maranao heritage through a modern digital platform.*

Marayaw's Business Model Canvas

SOLUTIONS:

01

All-in-One Tourism App – Develop a mobile application that serves as a one-stop platform featuring Marawi's culture, history, attractions, and local services, complete with rich content, images, and user reviews to guide travelers.

02

Smart Travel Tools – Integrate interactive maps, AI-based itinerary planning, geo-tagging, and AR guides to help users explore destinations efficiently and enjoy an immersive travel experience.

03

Personalized & Connected Experience – Provide AI-powered recommendations, event notifications, and built-in translation for Maranao, Filipino, and English to enhance convenience and engagement between tourists and locals.

04

Local Partnerships & Safety Support – Collaborate with local businesses and tour operators to offer deals and promotions, while also including emergency hotlines, weather updates, and safety alerts for secure and informed travel.
